RURAL AND REGIONAL TELE—SUPPORT GROUP

Ovarian Cancer Australia is bringing rural and regional women together over the phone.

Ovarian Cancer Australia has support groups in many metropolitan areas throughout Australia, but we recognise that these support groups are not accessible to everyone.

Being part of the Rural and Regional support group will allow women with ovarian cancer to meet other women in a similar situation, without the hassle and expense of travelling. All you need to do is be available at 7.30pm EST on the first Wednesday of each month.

For more information call 1300 660 334 or
